

Moving Checklist Switzerland

At Muvzilla, we know exactly what's involved in a move. Here we show you what you should do and when, and what to look out for. With the Muvzilla checklist you move relaxed.

3 months before the move:

3 months before the move, there is not much to do yet. Here, the focus is on tasks to prepare for your move. Depending on how your housing rent contract is structured, some tasks may be omitted. Whether you need to find a new tenant or should make small repairs depends entirely on your old contract. We have compiled the Moving Checklist Switzerland for you here, so that you are perfectly prepared.

- Cancel old rental agreement
- Carry out cosmetic repairs
- Search for new tenant
- Are all keys of the old apartment available?
- Check & sign new rent contract
- Transfer rent deposit for the new apartment
- Arrange dates for apartment handover (old and new apartment)

Checklist move – 2 months before the move:

Now your relocation preparations are picking up speed. Here is our checklist for 2 months before your move in Switzerland.

- Request leave for moving days
Depending on the size of your apartment, it is best to take one to three days off.
- Clear out apartment and sell/donate stuff
- Calculate costs for moving
With the Muvzilla app you can see directly what your move will cost. You do not have to get countless quotes first.
- Organize childcare

- Request no-parking zones
So the transporter can park directly in front of the apartment.
- Unsubscribe or change telephone, internet, electricity, gas, etc.
- Cancel club memberships
- Inform subscriptions, bank, kindergarten, employer, insurances, health insurance, etc. about change of address
- Plan the furnishings of the new apartment (incl. furniture plan for movers) and feel anticipation.

Checklist move – 2 weeks before the move:

There is a lot to do in the two weeks before your move. Just stick to our moving checklist Switzerland, then nothing will be forgotten.

- Prepare apartment handover protocols
Prepare the protocols for the old and new apartment.
- Dispose of bulky waste and electronic waste
- Set up redirection order
- Use up stocks and defrost freezer
- Measure old and new staircase
Save yourself unpleasant surprises if your large pieces of furniture should not fit through the staircase.

Checklist move – 1 week before the move:

Your move is just around the corner. With this checklist Moving Switzerland you can start with the final preparations.

- Take photos of the staircase and condition of the apartment so that previous damage is documented
- Get key for new apartment
- Eventually renovate new apartment (paint walls, lay floor)
- Pack personal belongings and important documents (certificates, passports, etc.), mark and provide boxes
- Organize food for movers

On the day of the move:

Today is the big day. Thanks to good preparation, the move will be a child's play.

- Water plants moderately
- Transporting personal belongings in your own car
- Have snacks ready
- Provide cleaning agents, trash bags and the first aid kit
- Instruct moving helpers and hang up your already made furniture layout plan
- First assemble the furniture, then carry in the boxes
- Clean staircase of the old and new apartment after the move and check for damage
- Clean old apartment
- Note meter readings of the old and new apartment

After the move:

Even after the move, there are still a few things to do. Once you have completed the checklist for moving to Switzerland, it's time to sit back, relax and enjoy your new home.

- Re-register car and residence
- Attach nameplates
On the mailbox and doorbell of the new apartment. You should remove those of the old apartment, if not already done.
- Apartment handover of the old apartment (incl. apartment handover protocol)
- Reclaim rent deposit of the old apartment
- Inform friends and acquaintances about the change of address
- Unpack and set up
